FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
The Paris Johnson Junior Foundation

Semifinalists Announced for the Paris Johnson Jr. Foundation Ohio High School Offensive Lineman of the Year Award.

COLUMBUS, OH (November 12, 2026) – The Paris Johnson Jr. Foundation is proud to announce the Semifinalists for the 2026 Ohio High School Offensive Lineman of the Year award, recognizing outstanding senior offensive linemen who exhibit exceptional traits both on the gridiron and in their communities.

Andrew Davalla – St. Ignatius HS
David Tarawallie – Riverside HS (Painesville)
Davis Seaman – Bishop Watterson HS
Jack Marquad – St. Edward HS
Kellen Wymer – Liberty Center HS
Lual Aleu – Winton Woods HS
Patrick O'Brien – Archbishop Moeller HS
Ryan Massie-Cable – Taylor HS
Zay'vion Smith – Harding HS

This prestigious award honors a senior offensive lineman who demonstrates not only athletic excellence but also exemplifies leadership, academic achievement, and community involvement. The recognition reflects the foundation's commitment to celebrating the complete student-athlete and the vital role offensive linemen play in team success.

Stay tuned as the award Finalists will be announced later this month with the winner being named at the OHSAA State Championship game in December.

About The Paris Johnson Jr. Foundation
The Paris Johnson Jr. Foundation was founded in 2018 by Paris Johnson Jr. and his family. Paris, the #6 pick in the NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals, and former All American Offensive Lineman for the Ohio State Buckeyes, was also a 3X Scholar Athlete, Academic All-Big 10 and graduated in three years with a degree in Journalism from tOSU. The Foundation is dedicated to empowering and serving disabled veterans and disadvantaged student athletes with dignity and respect. These goals are accomplished by ensuring that disabled veterans, student athletes and their families can obtain helpful resources that benefit them. Through the family's faith, and desire to elevate those who need it most, they created the foundation to help lift communities in Ohio and beyond. To learn more, visit the website or follow on Twitter.

CONTACT:
Monica Johnson
Email: info@ParisJohnsonJrFoundation.com