PARIS JOHNSON JR. TO PARTNER WITH PAT TILLMAN FOUNDATION AND COCA-COLA FOR SUMMER WATER DRIVE

Tempe, AZ – Cardinals offensive lineman Paris Johnson Jr. is partnering with the Pat Tillman Foundation and Coca-Cola for the second annual Summer Water Drive to benefit residents of UMOM New Day Centers (3333 E. Van Buren St, Phoenix) on Sunday, June 30 from 10:00-11:30 AM.

Johnson, along with Cardinals Cheerleaders, his family and Tillman Scholars from the Pat Tillman Foundation, will visit UMOM to distribute approximately 10,000 bottles of Dasani water donated by Coca-Cola. There will also be interactive games for children and families to enjoy at the event.

ABOUT UMOM: Founded in 1964, UMOM is an innovative provider of shelter, housing and services for people experiencing homelessness. Every night they provide safe shelter and supportive services for nearly 700 individuals experiencing homelessness – 155 families and 130 single women. They also offer over 550 units of affordable housing across the Valley.

ABOUT PTF: The Pat Tillman Foundation identifies remarkable veterans and military spouses as the next generation of leaders and helps them scale their impact as they enter their next chapter of service beyond self through academic scholarships, lifelong leadership development, and a global community of peers and supporters. For more information on the Pat Tillman Foundation and the impact of the Tillman Scholars, please visit patillmanfoundation.org.

Any media interested in covering the event should contact the Cardinals Media Relations department.
